1. Art in Nature

Take a closer look at the patterns on the shell of an ornate box turtle. Notice the bright color on a barred tiger salamander. Artists get lots of ideas from nature. Kansas state nature symbols will provide a resource for campers to explore the patterns, colors and textures in nature using paper, paint and clay.

4. Little Houses on the Prairie

A home made with animal skins, a home made of log.

A home with no windows.

a home with bricks of sod.

We will explore different types of homes from pioneer days. Come find out who built these homes, what they were made of, where they were built, what people did inside the houses and why they did things that way! We'll be inside and outside, so come prepared for both.

June 18-21, 2019, 9:00-11:30
