

the five places of Christmas

Enjoy a day of Christmas past and present, with decorating ideas, gifts, and special events

Saturday, December 1, 2018, 10:00 - 4:00

Kauffman Museum

27th and North Main Street, North Newton (316) 283-1612

- Museum gift shop with books, puzzles, wheat weaving and other gift items
- Special exhibition Better Choose Me: Collecting and Creating with Tobacco Fabric Novelties, 1880-1920
- Sneak peek mini-exhibit of Mary Lou Goertzen quilts, china and original art work
- Refreshments throughout the day

Bethel College Women's Association

Luyken Fine Arts Center, Bethel College, North Newton

- Theme is "Star of Bethlehem"
- Homemade candies, cookies, cinnamon rolls, peppernuts and other baked goods
- Handcrafted items such as purses, jewelry, crochet and other Christmas gifts
- Free coffee
- Ornament making station

Carriage Factory Art Gallery

128 East 6th Street, Newton (316) 284-2749

- Christmas craft making, 10 a.m. to noon
- Music: NUTS (Newton Ukulele Tunes Society) 10 a.m.-noon; Vada Snider on flute and Karen Loucks on piano 2-4 p.m.
- Refreshments all day long
- Shopping all day on all levels

Harvey County Historical Museum

203 North Main Street, Newton (316) 283-2221

- Live demonstrations of 3D printing and woodworking by Make Harvey
- Holiday craft making
- Last chance to see Fathers of Invention exhibit
- Light refreshments

Warkentin House

211 East First Street, Newton (316) 283-3113

- Musical performances by Home School Association of Newton
- Full holiday decorations
- Peppernuts and Mrs. Warkentin's Russian Tea

Free to the public

Donations accepted.

<http://tonewton.com/christmas.html>

Free commemorative ornament to the first 100 people to visit all five places