

VOICES of CONSCIENCE

Peace Witness in the Great War

Dear Peace-Minded Friends,

April 6, 2017 marked 100 years since the United States entered the World War I conflict. As Americans commemorate this historical landmark will they remember those whose peace witness challenged the call to war?

Voices of Conscience: Peace Witness in the Great War is a traveling exhibit developed by Kauffman Museum, which remembers the narratives of peoples of faith who opposed the war. The exhibit examines key questions such as:

- Who speaks for peace in times of war?
- What am I willing to fight for?
- What am I willing to die for?
- Is paying for war participating in war?
- How would I respond to violence?
- Who are the voices of conscience today?

Stories of the death of the Hutterite Martyrs of Alcatraz and the tarring and feathering of Mennonite farmers in Kansas provide examples of stalwart faith in the face of terror perpetrated by war advocates.

Will you help us preserve these voices of conscience?

Kauffman Museum invites your support:

- Bring the witness to your community by hosting the traveling exhibit
- Support outreach by becoming an exhibit sponsor with a tax-deductible gift

Any gift, sponsorship or exhibit booking in the amount of $6500 or more will be acknowledged as a supporter on promotional materials and on the credit panel that will travel with the exhibit.
